Dear Harry:

It is now more than ten years that I have served as legal advisor to the Meat Board and Devco in the United States. The amount of my regular retainer was fixed in discussion with Sir John late in 1960, was confirmed by an exchange of letters, and has remained unchanged since then.

During this period, there has been a general increase in the level of charges for legal services in the United States. I have made substantial increases in billings to all my other clients. I feel that it is now appropriate to suggest a change in my retainer arrangement with the Board to a basis more in keeping with the prevailing level of fees for legal services.

Therefore, I suggest that my arrangement with the Board be modified to provide for a retainer of $750 per month, effective July 1. The statement I will send you for the current quarterly period will be at the same rate as has been used in the past.

I have enjoyed our excellent relationships over these years, have been gratified at the growth of the American market for New Zealand meat, and look forward to continuing to play what part I can in facilitating this trade in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,
